

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

WHEREAS, for more than a century, the Catholic schools in the State of New Jersey have educated millions of New Jersey residents in preparation for their responsibilities as citizens of this State and as members of society; and

WHEREAS, the over 280 Catholic schools in the State currently provide over 125,000 students with quality educational programs that also emphasize the formation of moral values and a commitment to community service; and

WHEREAS, New Jersey's Catholic schools are dedicated to providing their students the opportunity to develop their intellectual capacities to the fullest;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JON S. CORZINE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim

JANUARY 25 THROUGH JANUARY 31, 2009

AS

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS' WEEK

in New Jersey, and commend their faculties, students, and parents for their dedication and devotion to quality education.

GIVEN, under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-fifth day of January in the year two thousand nine, the two hundred thirty-third year of the Independence of the United States.

GOVERNOR

BY THE GOVERNOR:

NINA MITCHELL WELLS
SECRETARY OF STATE
